Canvas Parent Portal Access

Canvas is a cloud-based learning management system that allows teachers and students to create and share content from any web-enabled device. It extends the walls of the classroom by allowing students to participate in assignments, assessments, and discussions from anywhere and provides the needed safety and security that we demand when students are online.

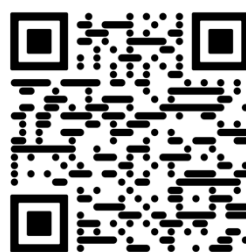

The school's handbook will be accessible all through the year through the Canvas Parent Portal. Parents and students should also check Canvas regularly for announcements, due dates, assignments and other important school news and information.

Logging into Canvas as a Parent:

- Go to <https://canvas.lifeplusworldwide.com>
- Click on PARENT LOGIN
- Enter the mother's email on file with your child
- Click "Request Password" if this is your first time
- Check your email for a password and follow the directions to set your new Canvas password.
- Use your email and password to access Canvas throughout the year from the website

International School of Qingdao Student Handbook Access

Communication is a priority at International School of Qingdao. All student handbooks are made available to families by logging-in to the Canvas Parent Portal throughout the school year. You can access the handbook by scanning the QR code below or logging in at <https://lifeplus.instructure.com/courses/5153>

Each year these handbooks are updated, therefore, to ensure the entire school community is aware of the current rules and policies, we ask that all parents and students read the handbook carefully.

As an indication that you have read the 2024-25 International School of Qingdao student handbook, please sign the acknowledgement forms and return the signed booklet for each child in your family to the assigned teacher at the school by the given due date.
